
The Cooper Associates County Ground, Taunton. Stadium Behaviour Code of Conduct

Somerset County Cricket Club (the Club) will not tolerate these behaviours under any circumstances:

- Behaviour that is unruly, disruptive, or illegal.
- Behaviour that is fuelled by intoxication, either by alcohol or other substance abuse.
- Foul, offensive, abusive language, gestures, or actions.
- Interfering in any way with the progress of the game including entering the playing area or throwing any items on it.
- Verbal or physical abuse or intimidation of others.
- Indecent exposure or wearing obscene or indecent clothing.
- Conduct that endangers the safety of others.

Any spectator displaying any number of the above behaviours will be ejected from the Stadium. Based on the severity, future Stadium bans may also be implemented.

Everyone at the Cooper Associates County Ground, Taunton values the unique, engaging atmosphere generated in the Stadium because of our spectators' enthusiasm but the Club does request that all spectators exercise good judgement and observe this Code of Conduct at all times.

Above all, please respect the rights of your fellow spectators and the Club's staff so that everyone has an enjoyable day.

Spectator Assistance SMS Service

If you are unfortunate enough to experience any behaviour that fails to meet your expectations, the Club wants to hear about it as soon as possible so that it may investigate and resolve it.

To help with the reporting of crowd disorder or anti-social behaviour, the Club has introduced an SMS service.

To anonymously (if you wish) report unruly behaviour, possible security concerns or any other type of problem which may be present in the Stadium, please text SCCC Steward followed by your message to 66777.

To help the Club resolve your problem, please make sure you include:

- A description and location of the situation.
- Any other information that you think might be helpful.

Your message will be shared directly with the Operations Director and Event Safety Officer who will investigate and take the necessary action. They will also respond to your message accordingly.

This document is reviewed bi-annually and we reserve the right to update it.

MEMBER DIRECTORS

Within Somerset County Cricket Club's skills-based and diverse Board, three Board members are reserved specifically to be filled by individuals elected by our Membership. These Member directors are the voice of Somerset County Cricket Club's Members.

The three Member directors are consistently available around the ground and available to talk to for anyone who would like to discuss, feedback or contribute to the overall running of Somerset County Cricket Club.

Richard Brice

A lifelong Somerset fan, Richard has developed a great passion for the game at all levels throughout his life. He is the President of Taunton St Andrews Cricket Club.

He has 20 years' experience in the construction industry and spent 10 years working within the world of finance.

Richard took over the running of the Club shop in 2005 at the request of then CEO, Peter Anderson. Under his stewardship as Managing Director, Somerset County Sports has gone from strength to strength and expanded to additional premises in Devon. In the last few years, he has stepped away from SCS in order to spend more time with his grandchildren and to allow his son James to take over.

Christine Brewer

Christine saw her first game of cricket at Clarence Park in Weston-super-Mare. Her husband plays village and Somerset Seniors cricket, and her late father-in-law was Chair of Bridgwater and West Somerset Area Committee where he served along with his wife for many years. He also served on the General Committee at SCCC.

Christine is passionate about all aspects of SCCC and is honoured to be representing the Club's Members on the new Board and will always be available to listen and advocate for all.

Geoff Vian

Born and raised in Taunton, Geoff is a lifelong Somerset supporter and Life Member since 2000. He worked for 49 years as a TV Cameraman, 24 years with the BBC and then as a freelance cameraman. For 15 years Geoff was the Head Cameraman for Sky Cricket.

Upon retirement, Geoff was able to devote more time to watching Somerset and to serving on the North Somerset & Bristol Area Committee and then also on the General Committee.

Geoff was able to use his experience to assist the SCCC streaming team, especially during lockdown, to help produce the Club's award-winning streaming coverage.
